AIF PARTNERS WITH BYJU'S, THE WORLD'S LARGEST EDTECH START-UP

The pandemic has made the digital divide more prominent than ever; many students face interrupted learning because of their lack of access to quality educational platforms.

AIF is thrilled to announce a non-commercial partnership with Byju’s, India’s largest digital educational content company, to give K-12 students access to “The Learning App” at no cost. Over the next three years, this partnership aims to reach one million students through 10,000 schools.

READ MORE >>

DEAF AWARENESS WEEK

Last week, we celebrated Rahul’s journey for Deaf Awareness Week.

RAHUL’S STORY>>

AIF YOUTH AMBASSADORS

We at AIF absolutely love receiving letters and kind words from our youngest supporters! Here are a few of our incredible Youth Ambassadors, who have stepped up to help our programming.

IT'S GALA SEASON AT AIF

The 2020 Virtual New York Gala - Because of your generosity, we raised over $2.1 million for this year's NY Gala. Thank you! We are so grateful that you support our mission and vision for a post-

https://mailchi.mp/aif/sept_2020_monthly_connect-939524
COVID-19 India. If you missed the gala, you can watch it on our event site until October 7th.

The 2020 Virtual New England Gala - New England friends, mark your calendars for October 25th, for AIF New England’s virtual celebration. To stay up-to-date with New England Chapter happenings, join the Facebook group.

AUTHORITY MAGAZINE INTERVIWNS AIF CEO, NISHANT PANDEY

A warm thank you to Authority Magazine for interviewing our CEO Nishant Pandey for their "Social Impact Heroes" series! Nishant shares his professional journey from the financial sector to the global development space, along with the work that AIF has done to address COVID-19 in this tumultuous year.

READ THE INTERVIEW >>

AIF's CIRCLE OF HOPE (CoH) SUPPORTS MOBILE LIBRARY INITIATIVE

The New England CoH team recently directed $5000 to fund AIF’s first mobile learning library, in order to support a primary, long-standing objective of AIF’s education programming: ensuring the continuity of learning among students.

*painting by Neena Buxani: Lady With Books

READ ABOUT THEIR SUPPORT>>

Maher Adoni (11th grade) won the India Philanthropy Alliance’s Youth Essay Competition and chose to direct his $1,000 award to AIF! Thank you, Maher.

Sanya Nadeem, 12, ran summer courses on Zoom for younger students in her neighborhood and donated the $1,800 she raised to AIF. Along with her support, she wrote a sweet letter to our CEO. So kind of you, Sanya!

READ ABOUT THEIR SUPPORT>>

Sean (college soph.) and Sophia Nesamoney (10th grade) created a children's book on health and safety called The ABCs of Coronavirus. They generously thought to share it with beneficiaries of AIF’s programs. Brilliant work, Sophia and Sean!

READ ABOUT OUR YOUTH AMBASSADORS>>
AIF Partners With Byju's, the World's Largest EdTech Start-Up